

Riverdance

Short notes. Example:

- a dance company
- perform traditional Irish dances and music with a modern twist
- in the 1994 Eurovision Song Contest
- a 7-minute break
- over 300 million viewers - hypnotise / glue to TV sets
- a trend-setting show – everyone want to know how to dance the jig
- more than 20 years later – the Irish cultural tradition - alive and kicking
- Lado – a Croatian national folk dance ensemble
- founded in 1949
- performers dance, sing and play traditional instruments
- (Are they popular among the young? Why not?)

Speaking tips:

PREPARE YOUR SPEECH	PRACTISE YOUR SPEECH	DELIVER YOUR SPEECH
-Make a checklist, a mind map or short notes. -Organise your notes into sentences and paragraphs.	-You can practise your speech in front of the mirror, ask somebody to listen to you or record your speech.	-Don't learn your speech by heart or read from a piece of paper. -Prepare notes that you will use while speaking. -Speak slowly and clearly and don't worry if you make a mistake.
